

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSIONS TO THE NYCLSA Noozleter

The newsletter of the New York College Learning Skills Association (NYLCSA) is published four times a year: February, May, September, and November. Current and past issues of this on-line newsletter are at www.nyclsa.org. Article contributions are welcome, according to these guidelines

- ❑ Topics could include current issues or trends in developmental education, best practices and innovative ideas for teaching, or a special interest such as Learning Disabilities, Writing Across the Curriculum, Math, Writing, Reading, Tutoring, Learning Center Administration, Assessment, or Paired Courses. We are also interested in articles about TRIO programs and EOP/HEOP. If you work for one of these programs and might be interested in writing or co-writing an occasional column, please contact the editor.
- ❑ If your piece is accepted for publication, you will be notified within a month of submission.
- ❑ Suggested article length is 500-750 words.
- ❑ Send articles as an e-mail attachment to nichole.bennett-bealer@plattsburgh.edu.
- ❑ If your article is published and you would like your supervisor to receive acknowledgement, include her/his name and full address with your submission.
- ❑ Submission deadlines for upcoming issues:
 - VOL. 28, ISSUE # 4: Friday, February 12, 2010
 - VOL. 29, ISSUE # 1: Friday, April 30, 2010
 - VOL. 29, ISSUE # 2: Friday, September, 10, 2010
 - VOL. 28, ISSUE # 3: Friday, November 12, 2010
